The OSR Mentorship Blueprint

A personalized path from inconsistent trading to a structured, disciplined process, built around your experience, schedule and risk tolerance.

WHO THIS IS FOR

- Traders who understand the fundamentals but struggle with consistent execution
- Traders stuck in the almost-profitable stage
- Professionals balancing trading with demanding careers or limited time
- Traders ready to stop strategy hopping and commit to one structured process
- People who value accountability, honest feedback and continuous improvement

WHO IT IS NOT FOR

Anyone seeking guaranteed results, shortcuts, or trade signals without understanding the process, or anyone unwilling to review their mistakes, follow a framework and take responsibility for their development.

HOW THE MENTORSHIP WORKS

You work directly with me, Oscar “OSR” Sanchez. Not a group lecture, not a course you watch alone. Every stage below follows the same pattern:

WHERE YOU'RE STARTING

We identify your real baseline: your trade history, recurring mistakes, and what is actually costing you consistency.

WHAT GETS BUILT

The specific rules, routines and reviews for that stage, tied to your trade film, not generic theory.

Four stages. You move on when your process is ready, not when the calendar says so.

STAGE 1: FOUNDATION

BASELINE, RULES AND RISK

WHERE YOU'RE STARTING

- Changing strategies after a few losses
- No fixed risk per trade, or rules you break under pressure
- No honest record of what you actually do when you trade

Goal: a written trading framework and risk limits you can follow.

WHAT'S BUILT AT THIS STAGE

- Personalized trading roadmap
- Position sizing, daily loss limit and a plan for drawdowns
- Full access to Ledgerly, my trading journal app
- Baseline review of your existing trades

STAGE 2: EXECUTION

FOLLOWING THE PLAN LIVE

WHERE YOU'RE STARTING

- A plan on paper, but hesitation, FOMO or early exits in the moment
- Strong analysis, weak follow-through

Goal: execute your plan the way it was written.

WHAT'S BUILT AT THIS STAGE

- Live trading sessions with me
- Trade film review: execution, risk and adherence to your framework
- Weekly performance reviews, scored on process, not just profit

STAGE 3: DISCIPLINE

PSYCHOLOGY AND CONSISTENCY

WHERE YOU'RE STARTING

- You follow the rules most days, then break them after a loss or a win
- The same mistakes keep repeating in your reviews

Goal: routines that hold up on a bad day.

WHAT'S BUILT AT THIS STAGE

- Recurring-mistake audit from your own trade film
- Pre-session and post-session routines, plus loss-response rules
- Private 1-on-1 coaching calls to work through what the data shows

STAGE 4: INDEPENDENCE

A PROCESS YOU OWN

WHERE YOU'RE STARTING

- A working process that still leans on feedback

Goal: run, review and refine your own process.

WHAT'S BUILT AT THIS STAGE

- Self-review system you can keep using on your own
- Small-group masterminds (4 per year) with other committed traders
- Priority support between sessions

EVERYTHING INCLUDED

- 4 private 1-on-1 coaching calls per month
- Live trading sessions with me
- Weekly performance reviews
- Trade film review
- 4 small-group masterminds per year
- Personalized trading roadmap
- Full access to Ledgerly, my trading journal app
- Priority support between sessions

HOW SELECTION WORKS

I personally review every application for your experience, current challenges, goals and readiness. You may be accepted directly, or invited to complete a short Performance Phase to show how you approach trading and apply the OSR framework.

- Allow 5 to 7 business days for a response
- Applying does not guarantee acceptance
- No payment is required to apply

TUITION AND PAYMENT STRUCTURE

An initial deposit is due on acceptance and is credited toward your total tuition. The remaining balance follows a performance-linked structure: 30% of eligible profit withdrawals is applied toward your outstanding balance until it is paid in full.

The total tuition, deposit amount, definition of eligible withdrawals, payment calculations and all applicable terms are provided in writing before you commit.

WHY WORK WITH ME

- You work with me directly. I review every application personally.
- Feedback is based on your own trades, reviewed on film.
- The focus is education, skill development, risk management and disciplined execution.
